December Bunco Night

A fun time was had by all! We had an ugly sweater competition, white elephant exchange and delicious food. Jan Wachter won the ugliest sweater award.

Commodore 's Report

We had the winter solstice, so days are now getting longer! Yea for sailing season to begin soon!

KYC really came through with the Marine's Toys for Tots campaign, you guys rock! Thank you to all who contributed! You truly are an awesome group! Marie Wright told me her secret which is to buy throughout the year and save them for this event--what a simple and great idea!

Hoping all had a good Christmas and now onto 2022! It is with sadness that we have lost Ralph Howe, prayers to Sharon and the family. I will miss him for being faithful to helping me with the weekly races along with the Pitchpole Palooza! Such a good man lost too soon!

I leave a great Board for the new year! Thank you all that voted for me, I only wanted one sort of normal year--ain't happening. KYC has several big-ticket items to take care of so here's hoping we can check those off as monies allow.

Did you catch the H&N article on Cindy Derosier surviving the attack on Pearl Harbor? It was well written and I'm happy that she and her family survived! Such a tragedy! May we always remember the fallen! For those of you who served and survived any service, thank you greatly!

I have been absent a bit due to a fall that messed up my face so have just let that heal and not scare you more than usual--haha!

With my absence, Vince will have to fill in those of you that made meals. I was at the salmon dinner with Brian and Carol Hansen, Jim and Carol Herring, Ernie and Sandy Waters and Al Day hosting. They served an incredible meal, and it was well attended. Mark Wicks along with Becky Divley made red beans and rice, Vince had chowder for the decorating parties, Vic and Laura Ford served a chicken dinner and those are the ones I'm aware of. Of course, thanks go to Vince for filling in!

Suzi has planned a New Year's Eve party which is always wonderful! In advance, thank you to Yummy's catering and to Suzi for putting all together--we know that she knows how to throw a party! How did we get so lucky to have such an amazing bartender! Mega thanks, Suzi!

Here's to a better 2022! Bless all with good health, happiness and perhaps wealth!

Loves to all,
Commodore Houston

Congratulations to our newest member and her happy parents!

Vice Commodore's Report

Greetings from the Vice

Another year has passed and hopefully a better one is to follow. Not to say 2021 was bad but would like to get back to our old normal if we can.

This next week we will be having a planning meeting to schedule dinners, learn to sail classes, regattas, and regular Wednesday Night Racing. We'll email you a date and time. If you can't make it to the meeting give us a call or email with ideas and things you would like to volunteer for. The best way to get to know other members is to help with a dinner or work party.

For those that missed the Tom & Jerry Party we now have a new slate of officers and board members.

Sue Harbin: Commodore
Mark Wicks: Vice Commodore
Vince Wachter: Rear Commodore
Val Paulson: Secretary
Debra Huggins: Treasurer
Patricia (Sam) Houston: Past Commodore
Garrick Jackson: Board Member
Homer Garich: Board Member
Jim Wolfe: Board Member
Christy Groff: Board Member
Sharon Howe: Board Member

A big thanks to Sam for holding down the helm for the last two years. Unlike plumbing where s#*t always runs downhill, it goes the other way in clubs with volunteer officers.

I could thank those that did dinners on Wednesdays and Fridays but it would be a repeat of months past. We did have a guest chef last Wednesday when friends Skip and Geena Barney cooked some great enchiladas and rice with jalapeno poppers for starters. They're not even members (yet).

My Biggest THANK YOU goes to Suzi our bartender. She, with some help from her family, put on a great New Year's Eve party including getting Norm from Yummy's to cater the dinner. He has sold Yummy's and this was his last catering job.

Everyone stay safe. Hope to see you at the Club

Cheers
Vince

In Memoriam

Hi Ladies,
I have been thinking about setting up a ladies auxiliary for the club. Nothing too strenuous! Just get to know each other more, organize some new socials for the year. Tidy up and organize some areas, (again nothing heavy, would have to include a few strong men on this project). Discuss new ideas for the club and what you would like to see occur during the year.

If you are interested, please email me at

Thank you,
